

Implementing technology to create a 21st Century Classroom in the Middle East & North Africa

What do the teachers say?

97% say technology transforms education systems

62% say there is a lack of budget

52% say there is a lack of adequate training

40% there is lack of integration of technology in classrooms

Top 3 reasons for teachers to use technology in their classrooms

76% To enhance classroom learning experiences

59% To improve efficiency in teaching roles

52% To better communicate & collaborate with students

SOLUTIONS

70% of educators believe creating virtual classrooms & implementing e-learning solutions will improve education

50% say mobile devices are an important tool

OneNote for education helps teachers & students stay organised, share lessons, work together be more creative.

Education apps in the Windows marketplace are great learning aids & also assist with classroom management.

Windows devices and key Microsoft products like Office 365 Education create dynamic learning experiences both inside and outside the classroom.

Other useful apps, tools and products include Skype, Sway, Minecraft Education Edition, & Dynamics & Xbox.

Microsoft continues to invest in education solutions to bring technology into the classroom and create immersive and inclusive experiences for students and educators.

