The screenshot displays the Yammer Groups interface in a web browser. The browser's address bar shows the URL <https://www.yammer.com/fourleafconsulting.com>. The Yammer logo and navigation links (Return to Yammer, Networks, Account, Log Out) are visible at the top.

The main content area is titled "Groups" and features a search bar. Below the search bar, there is a list of groups. The "Engineering Public Group" is highlighted, showing its description: "Edit group · Invite members". The group has 6 members and 13 messages. A "Join" button is visible next to the group name.

Below the group list, there is a section for "Engineering Public Group" with a description: "Edit group · Invite members". This section includes a "Share" button and a "Share something with this group..." input field.

At the bottom of the interface, there is a "Welcome" message from Julie (edit) and a list of messages. The "Messages" section includes links to "My Feed", "Direct Messages", "Community Feed", "Mentions", "Sent", "Bookmarked", "Liked", "RSS", and "Less".

The "COMPANY" section lists "Members" and "Groups". The "Groups" section includes links to "Topics", "Invite", and "Admin".

The "APPS" section lists "Files", "Images", "Polls", "Events", "Questions", and "Og Chart".

The "Engineering Public Group" section includes a "Share" button and a "Share something with this group..." input field. Below this, there is a post by Adam Zadikoff titled "Engineering: Here's a new doc." with a link to <http://sp2.yammer.office/sites/Test/Shared%20Documents/...>. The post was made 1 month ago from Sharepoint and includes links for "Reply", "Unlike", and "More".

Below the post, there is a comment by Julie Horvath: "Thanks for this @Adam Zadikoff can I share this with some of my clients?" (10 days ago). A "Write a reply..." input field is visible at the bottom.
