

Finance the IT Consulting Services you need today with payment solutions

Consulting Services are becoming an increasingly important component of your overall IT solution...and a larger percentage of the costs. To avoid delays in your project, it is essential to ensure they are fully covered in your budget.

With Microsoft Financing you can benefit from flexible payment solutions that help alleviate deployment challenges. Align project costs with anticipated benefits and minimize up-front capital outlays. Create a custom payment that maps to your budget cycles, and optimize your cash flow.

Fund all aspects of your project

Align payments to budgets, cash flow, and deployment

Include payments in loan agreements

Choose a payment solution to meet your needs

Deferred payments – no payments for up to six months

Ramped payments – start low to match deployment and migration projects
