Your duty of disclosure

At the time of application, you have a duty to disclose to the Insurer every matter that you know or could reasonably be expected to know that is relevant to the Insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of Insurance and, if so, on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the Insurer before you renew, extend, vary, or reinstate the Insurance. We ask you to make these disclosures in the Insurance application.

Your duty, however, does not require you to disclose any matter that diminishes the risk to be insured by the Insurer, that is of common knowledge, that the Insurer knows of or in the ordinary course of its business ought to know or in respect of which the Insurer waives the requirement to comply.

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the Insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of any claim or may cancel the Insurance. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent the Insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from the beginning.
