

The future of hybrid courts is here

How Microsoft is keeping courts in session

The world is changing faster than ever, and our court systems can't afford to slow down

There's no other choice: courts need to go virtual to keep up.

+75%
of governments

will operate more than half of workloads using hyperscale cloud service providers.¹

85%
of potential jurors

report having some form of internet service at home.²

1.4M
caseloads

are actively pending cases due to the pandemic.³

Judges and courtrooms want a hybrid court solution that can handle various types of hearings, workloads, and conditions, as well as integrate case files and documents.

Microsoft can help by providing trusted solutions for hybrid court proceedings

Microsoft Teams allows everyone involved in judicial proceedings to connect and attend securely in one virtual location, no matter where they are.
