Who provides the Insurance

The insurer for the Insurance is Technology Insurance Company, Inc. (Insurer). The Insurer provides the insurance globally to Microsoft customers including Australian customers. In Australia, the Insurance is facilitated through A.I.S. Insurance Brokers Pty Ltd, ACN 065 797 597 (A.I.S.). A.I.S. holds an Australian financial services license (AFSL no. 255304).

The Insurance is provided through a group policy issued to Microsoft by the Insurer. The group policy allows Microsoft and retailers that have been appointed as authorised general insurance product distributors of A.I.S. (Retailers) to offer Accidental Damage benefits to education establishments, including universities or TAFE, primary and high schools located in Australia (Schools) who have purchased one or more eligible Microsoft devices (Product). A list of eligible Microsoft devices can be found at https://www.microsoft.com/enau/surface/business/warranty-protection-plans-andsupport. Microsoft (and the Retailers) is not authorised or licensed to provide any personal financial product advice in relation to the Insurance. Microsoft acts on behalf of A.I.S. and the Insurer when arranging the Insurance for customers and handling claims.

Microsoft pays a premium at the time of acquiring the group policy.

The Insurer is not a declared general insurer for the purpose of Part VC of the Insurance Act, and this means that you will not be covered by the Australian government's financial claims scheme provided under Part VC of the Insurance Act.

The Insurer is incorporated in the State of Delaware, U.S.A., which is subject to a system of financial supervision of insurers in the State of Delaware, U.S.A. The Insurance is a consumer insurance contract. You have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the Insurer including when answering questions relevant to the Insurance at the time of application or registration of your Microsoft Complete for Schools service contract.

You must answer our questions with relevant and complete information, and you must not misrepresent any information that you give to us. You have the same duty in relation to anyone else whom you want to be covered by the Insurance.

If your failure to comply with your duty is fraudulent, the Insurer may refuse to pay a claim and treat the policy as never having been in existence.

Significant features and benefits

The information and tables provided below are a limited summary only and not a full description of the Insurance. The Insurance is subject to terms, conditions, exclusions, and limitations that are not listed in this section.

3.) What does the Insurance cover

The Insurer will cover damage from handling the Product, being physical breakage or destruction to each Product which prevents that device from functioning properly including damage caused by liquid or dropping the Product.

Where we pay your claim, you give us absolute conduct, control and settlement of any legal proceedings we take to make that recovery (those proceedings will be brought at our own expense and for our own benefit). If we make any recovery which exceeds the amount of the claim we have paid, we will pay any surplus funds to you after first paying for our legal and associated expenses. You must provide all necessary information, documents and reasonable assistance as the Insurer may require for this purpose.
