

Product Disclosure Statement

This Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) contains important information about the main features, benefits and risks of the Microsoft Complete Accidental Damage Insurance (Insurance) and how much it costs.

Who provides the Insurance?

The insurer for the Insurance is Technology Insurance Company Inc. (Insurer). The Insurer provides the insurance globally to Microsoft customers including Australian customers. In Australia, the Insurance is facilitated through A.I.S. Insurance Brokers Pty Ltd, ACN 065 797 597 (A.I.S.). A.I.S. holds an Australian financial services license (AFSL no. 255304).

Microsoft Pty Ltd t/as Microsoft Australia, 1 Epping Road North Ryde, 2113 Australia (Microsoft) is an authorised representative acting on behalf of A.I.S. to arrange for its customers to have access to the Insurance and to handle claims on the Insurance. The Insurance is provided through a group policy issued to Microsoft by the Insurer. The group policy allows Microsoft (and its Australian authorised distributors and resellers) to offer Microsoft Complete Accidental Damage benefits to its customers who have purchased a Surface product, Studio product, Xbox product, tablet, or laptop (Product). Microsoft (and its Australian authorised distributors and resellers) is not authorised or licensed to provide any financial product advice in relation to the Insurance. Microsoft acts on behalf of A.I.S. and the Insurer when arranging the Insurance for customers and handling claims.

Microsoft pays a premium at the time of acquiring the group policy. The Insurance is provided to customers that have a Microsoft Complete Plan at no additional charge.

If you have a complaint about the services you receive in relation to the Insurance, contact A.I.S. on 03 8699 8888. More details regarding the process for complaints is on page 4.

The Insurer is an unauthorised foreign insurer, also known as Direct Offshore Foreign Insurer. Whilst the Insurer is legally permitted to provide the insurance, it is not authorised to conduct insurance business in Australia under the Insurance Act 1973 (Cth) (Insurance Act) or subject to the Insurance Act which establishes a system of financial supervision of general insurers in Australia.

The Insurer is not a declared general insurer for the purpose of Part VC of the Insurance Act, and this means that you will not be covered by the Australian government's financial claims scheme provided under Part VC of the Insurance Act.

The Insurer is incorporated in the State of Delaware, U.S.A., which is subject to a system of financial supervision of insurers in the State of Delaware, U.S.A. The paid up capital of the Insurer is $4.5M (USD) (October 1, 2021). Any disputes in relation to this insurance will be determined in accordance with the laws in the state of Victoria, Australia.

Privacy

Both Microsoft and A.I.S. are committed to compliance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Australian Privacy Principles (Privacy Act). We collect personal information (which includes your name, address, telephone and other contact details) and use your personal information to provide you with this Insurance, and to assess and manage claims. Your information is collected by Microsoft (and its Australian authorised distributors and resellers). If you don't provide full information we may not be able to provide you with Insurance or assess a claim.

Microsoft will provide your information to the Insurer and A.I.S. in order to provide the Insurance and related services. The Insurer and A.I.S. are subject to the Privacy Act. We may provide your information to a contracted third party service provider (e.g. repairer, servicer, assessor, investigator, professional adviser) or other person involved in the claims management process (e.g. an Australian authorised distributor/reseller) but will take all reasonable steps to ensure that they comply with the Privacy Act. Some of the third parties may be located overseas in the United States. We may also store your personal information overseas on servers located in the United States.

A.I.S.'s Privacy Policy contains information about how you can access the information it holds about you, ask us to correct it or make a privacy related complaint. You can obtain a copy from our Privacy Officer by telephone 03 8699 8888 or by visiting A.I.S.'s website: www.aisinsurance.com.au

Details regarding the Privacy Policy for Microsoft and the Insurer can be found at the following website: <http://www.microsoft.com/privacystatement/en-us/core/default.aspx>

Your duty not to make a misrepresentation

The Insurance is a consumer insurance contract. You have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the Insurer including when answering questions relevant to the Insurance at the time of application or registration of your Microsoft Complete service contract.

You must answer our questions with relevant and complete information and you must not misrepresent any information that you give to us. You have the same duty in relation to anyone else whom you want to be covered by the Insurance.

If you fail to comply with your duty, and the Insurer would not have issued the Insurance for the same premium and on the same terms and conditions, the Insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the Insurance in respect of any claim or may cancel the Insurance. If your failure to comply with your duty is fraudulent, the Insurer may refuse to pay a claim and treat the policy as never having been in existence.

Significant features and benefits

The information and tables provided below are a limited summary only and not a full description of the Insurance. The Insurance is subject to terms, conditions, exclusions and limitations that are not listed in this section.

For a full understanding of the Insurance, please carefully read the Consumer Complete T&Cs including the exclusions and terms and conditions of the Insurance which can be found at the following website:

https://support.microsoft.com/en-us/windows/warranties-extended-service-plans-and-terms-conditions-for-your-device-eedf7a23-84a7-1a47-480b-0e10503eedf5#bkmk_completeforbusiness-au

1.) Who is eligible

You are eligible to claim on the Insurance if you:

- are over the age of 18 years;
- ordinarily reside in Australia;
- are a customer of Microsoft and have purchased the Microsoft Complete Plan for your Product; and
- have registered your Product with Microsoft at <https://devicesupport.microsoft.com>

Before making a claim, you must register your Product with Microsoft when you purchase your Microsoft Complete Surface Plan at <https://devicesupport.microsoft.com>.

2.) When does the Insurance start

Once your Microsoft Complete Plan is paid for, you will be issued with confirmation of cover and the Insurance commences on the date stated in that document.

3.) What does the Insurance cover

The Insurer will cover damage from handling the Product, being physical breakage or destruction to each Product which prevents that device from functioning properly including damage caused by liquid or dropping the Product.

The damage must be caused by an accident which is any involuntary, external, forcible and violent event that was unforeseen and was not deliberate, intentional, reckless or premeditated. The Insurance does not cover theft or loss including due to misplacement by you or anyone else.

4.) What are the limits of the Insurance

You are entitled to make two claims for replacement or repair of each damaged Product, except for the Xbox product (see below), during the period of your Insurance. The maximum amount the Insurer will pay will not exceed twice the amount paid by you for the covered Product, excluding any applicable taxes and/or fees, as indicated on your original purchase receipt (Original Purchase Price) for the Product.

For the Xbox Plan, you are entitled to make one claim for replacement or repair of each damaged Xbox product components up to the following limits during the period of your Insurance:

XBOX COVERED COMPONENT	NUMBER OF COVERED REPLACEMENTS
Console	ONE (1)
Standard Controllers	TWO (2)
Elite Controller	ONE (1)

The maximum amount the Insurer will pay will not exceed the Original Purchase Price for the Xbox product, The Insurer has the option of either repairing each damaged Xbox product component or replacing it.

Please note the replacement value is the market value of one Product/component of the same make and model or with similar technical and functional capabilities (if there is no stock of the same make and model). Any replacement device the Insurer supplies will not exceed the Original Purchase Price.

1.) Your obligations to take reasonable care

During the period of cover, you are required to take reasonable precautions to secure and protect each Product.

2.) How do I claim

You must notify Microsoft as soon as possible and where practicable within 24 hours of any accident that causes damage to each Product. Call our toll free number on 1800 886 295 or 61 2 9870 2200 as soon as possible to inform us.

We may ask you to supply documents and/or reports relating to the damage to allow Microsoft to assess the claim and for the Insurer to validate the claim. If you do not provide reasonable information in support of the claim we may not be in a position to properly assess and pay your claim. In most cases, we will ask you to return the Product to Microsoft for them to assess the damage.

3.) The Insurer's rights to retain property

If we pay your claim, we are entitled to take and keep possession of the damaged Product and deal with it as we see fit.

You also understand that if someone has damaged a Product and they are legally liable to you for that damage, we may undertake in your name and/or on your behalf to make a legal recovery against that person.

Where we pay your claim, you give us absolute conduct, control and settlement of any legal proceedings we take to make that recovery (those proceedings will be brought at our own expense and for our own benefit). If we make any recovery which exceeds the amount of the claim we have paid, we will pay any surplus funds to you after first paying for our legal and associated expenses. You must provide all necessary information, documents and reasonable assistance as the Insurer may require for this purpose.

4.) Cancellation

We may cancel this Insurance where we are permitted to cancel under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). The Policy may be cancelled by us where you:

- failed to comply with the duty of the utmost good faith;
- failed to comply with the duty to not make a misrepresentation;
- made a misrepresentation to us before the contract of Insurance was entered into;
- failed to comply with a provision of the contract; or
- made a fraudulent claim under the contract.

We may cancel the Insurance by providing you with 3 days prior written notice.

You can cancel the Insurance at any time by giving us written notice. Cancellation notices should be emailed to microsoft@aisinsurance.com.au. There is no refund of the cost of the Insurance if you decide to cancel the Insurance unless you decide to cancel the Insurance within the cooling off period (see below).

Cooling off period

If you decide you do not want the Insurance within 30 days of purchase and you have not made a claim, you can cancel the Insurance. If we have charged you premium for the Insurance, we will refund a payment.

5.) Transfer/Sale to a Third Party

You can transfer the Microsoft Complete Plan to the new owner by contacting Microsoft to arrange a transfer.
